The Wuppertal Suspension Railway (Schwebebahn)

The line operates 28 sets built in the early 1970s. It also operates the "Kaiser Wagon", one of the units built in 1900 when Kaiser Wilhelm II first opened the line.

Section 1: Oberbarmen to Alter Markt

First we look at Oberbarmen Bahnhof (Berliner Platz) which is the eastern terminus. After looking at the bridge work activity we join the next departure for Vohwinkel.

Section 2: Alter Markt to Zoo/Stadion

At Alter Markt we view the railway from street level. We then cross the suspension bridge. A short break is taken at Doppersberg near the mainline station. Then we continue above the River Wupper to Zoo/Stadion.

Section 3: Zoo/Stadion to Vohwinkel

After departing Zoo/Stadion we turn away from the River Wupper to travel above the traffic-filled streets. Vohwinkel is our terminus.

Section 4: Vohwinkel to Alter Markt

Activity is viewed at the terminus/depot before we join our return service. After crossing the Alter Markt suspension bridge this DVD comes to an end.

Running time of this DVD-R is 60 minutes.
